

HEAVEN'S VERY SPECIAL CHILD

A meeting was held quite far from Earth:

"It's time again for another birth."

Said the Angels to the Lord Above,

"This special child will need much love."

His progress may seem very slow,

Accomplishments he may not show

And he'll require extra care

From folks he meets way down there.

He may not run or laugh or play

His thoughts may seem quite far away:

In many ways he isn't adapt

And he'll be known as handicapped.

So let's be careful where he's sent

We want his life to be content.

Please, Lord, find the parents who

Will do a special job for you.

They will not realize right away

The leading role they're asked to play

But with this child sent from above

Comes a stronger faith and richer love.

And soon they'll know the privilege given

In caring for the Gift from Heaven.

Their precious charge,

so meek and mild

Is Heaven's Very Special Child.

Cagen Shaida Dixon, lovingly known as KK, entered this world on May 10, 1998, in Greenville, Texas, and departed on February 6, 2024, in Midlothian, Texas. He grew up in Dallas, Texas, and attended Bryan Adams High School.

KK brought joy and laughter wherever he went, always ensuring everyone around him was happy with his trademark question, "Are you happy?" His playful nature and love for people endeared him to friends and family alike. He had a special affection for church, Toy Story, and his cherished SpongeBob blanket, a gift from his dear friend Becca.

His humor and silliness brightened the lives of those around him, and he had a knack for teasing his loved ones in the most endearing way. Despite his playful antics, KK had a deep spirituality, evident in his daily inquiry about meeting Jesus. On February 6, 2024, surrounded by his mother Michelle and stepfather Kirby, KK peacefully embarked on his journey to meet Jesus, leaving behind cherished memories of his infectious laughter and kind spirit.

He is survived by his devoted mother Michelle Landers (Neal) and stepfather Kirby Neal, his brothers Trenton Gaffney and Gavin Dixon, his nephew Anthony Vazquez, his niece Arabella Vazquez, his nana Laura Lloyd, and his aunts Shyla and Debbie.

KK is preceded in death by his grandmother Barbara Anglin, his grandfather James Landers, and his aunt Karon Seale.

In honoring KK's memory, let us hold onto the joy and love he brought into our lives and carry his spirit forward in all that we do.
